We're always interested in anything entertainment related---- movies, TV, books, gaming, music... you get the picture!

2. How do you use my answers?

The short answer is to help us keep on top of the interests of both fans and potential fans always helps build a great network and come up with innovative ways to let the fans know what new and interesting programming they might be interested in.

3. How many surveys will I be asked to do during the year?

We pump them out a lot, but we'd hope you do at least one a month. A lot of them are really short and sweet, and a few of them are bit more thorough, but only when we all think there's a topic that fans really want to explore.
